

2ND SEMI-ANNUAL INTERDISCIPLINARY PUBLIC LECTURE

The Tanzanian Club of Andrews University Presents:

“Attack on the Institution of Marriage and the Family: A Foundational Threat to World Peace”

SPEAKER: PASTOR CORNELIUS AYODEJI
OSUNTADE

WHEN: SATURDAY APRIL 23, 2016

WHERE: NEWBOLD AUDITORIUM
(BULLER HALL)

On the Campus of Andrews University

TIME: 3:00pm-4:30pm

Pastor Cornelius Ayodeji Osuntade is currently pursuing his Ph.D. in Religious Education at Andrews University, His emphasis is in Marriage and Family Life. He is an ordained minister of the Seventh-day Adventist church. Pastor Osuntade is happily married to Oluwasayo Osuntade and together they are blessed with three children.

 The institution of marriage and the family has existed from the dawn of history as the most intimate and one of the most important of human groups. However, marriage and the family are institutions under siege in our world today and that with marriage and the family, our very civilization is in crisis. In this public lecture, Pastor Osuntade will address some of the hot button issues regarding the institution of marriage and the family in our day and age.*

COME ONE, COME ALL!!

NEWBOLD AUDITORIUM (Buller Hall).

Andrews University